

Personal information protection policy (Privacy Policy)

Marketing Organization The Interior Ministry has prepared a personal information protection policy up to the protection of personal data of users of services marketing organization's Web site. The Ministry of Interior. As follows:

Collection of personal information

1. to disseminate corporate information with people who use the service information from the marketing organization's Web site. The Ministry of Interior.

2. satisfaction surveys on the use of the site and the information system of the marketing organization, including opinions. Suggestions or complaints on the service of marketing organization The Ministry of the Interior, which is beneficial in improving the quality of service and marketing organization. The Ministry of the Interior, using statistical methods as tools in action, it is necessary to collect data, visits to the Web site of the Organization of the market. The Ministry of the Interior include the IP number (IP Address), type of program (Browser Type), domain name (Domain Name), save a Web page (web page) of the Web site that a user visited. Time you visit the website (Access Times) and the Web site that users access to previous (Referring Website Addresses).

3. marketing organization The Ministry of Interior. The message cannot be authenticated or certified to perform any of the other Web sites that are linked from this website, and does not take any responsibility if such sites are not operating or executing any policies, privacy protection, Web site publishing them in all cases.

THE USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION.

1. marketing organization The Ministry of the Interior will use personal information only as needed, such as your name and address to use to contact the service provider, public relations or providing news, information, including surveys of owners of information in business or marketing organization's activities. The Ministry of the Interior only.

2. marketing organization The Interior Ministry warrant that you will not use personal information that marketing organization. The Ministry of the Interior. Collected, sold or distributed to third parties is strictly prohibited, unless authorized to do so.

SECURITY FOR PERSONAL INFORMATION.

Security for personal information. Marketing Organization The Ministry of Interior. It is defined, the right to access your personal information and maintaining the security of personal information using Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol with the marketing organization's Web site. The Ministry of Interior.

Both these Marketing Organization The Ministry of the Interior may make improvements to or correct the personal information protection policy as necessary and appropriate for the service only.